The County Court to be Petitioned to Appropriate $20,000-The Committee to Meet Governor Brown.

The chamber of commerce met in its rooms on the corner of Malison and Front streets, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, Mr. Pettigrew presiding, and a full attendance of members being Justice Wallace offered his resignation as poorhouse commissioner. The resig-

Mr. Pettigrew stated that the object of the meeting was to take action relative to the location of the West Tennessee asylum for the insane. Dr. Rogers, one of the commissioners, stated that the last legislature voted an appropriation of three hundred and fifty or four hundred thousand dollars for the erection of a suitable building and outhouses for an insane asylum in West Tennessee. He also stated that there would be an annual appropriation of from seventy-five to one hundred thousand dollars for the main-tenance and support of the institution, and it is thought that twenty-five or thirty thousand additional would be thirty thousand additions! would be left by visitors annually. He said that the law requires that where a site is donated such shall have the preference over others, ecteris paribus. As one of the commissioners, he had visited the different sites offered in Madison, Gibson and Hay wood counties. Previous to this he laid the matter before the mayor and chairman of the council, and both boards of the city gov-ernment have voted the sum of ten thousand dollars toward securing the site. Efforts to this end were made to the county court, but with-out effect. The result was, he went to out effect. The result was, he went to Humboldt unprepared to offer any inducement in this respect. The other two commissioners reported in favor of Humboldt, but he made a minority report to the governor, who, in reply, stated that he would not approve the selection at present, but would visit the different localities, in company with scientific experts, and that they would be at Humboldt next Monday. He was be at Humboldt next Monday. He was materially assisted in his efforts by Messrs. Busby, Reilley, Piper, Murphy, Drs. Saunders, Avant, and other gen-tlemen of this city.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Major Busby offered the following

The Courthouse Question Not Settled-The County Court to be

EDITORS APPEAL-Since the adoption of the majority report of the courthouse committee, by the quarterly court we are satisfied that a very large and respectable portion of our taxpayers of all classes are utterly opposed to buying any second-class building for a courthouse at any price whatever. And while every one acknowledges the great need of a courthouse, and would cheerfully pay taxes for that purpose, provided a first-class edifice should be erected, centrally located and built upon such plans as would be commensurate with the wants of the various courts. While we have of the various courts. While we have great confidence in our county magistrates, we fear they have acted hastily in this matter, and especially so, in view of the protest made by so-large and respectable a portion of the tax-payers, and we think the court should have given time for the vantile.
